Country Star Search is geared for artists who are truly seeking a career in "Country Music." "Country" through our contest is defined as Country/Modern, Country/Traditional, Country/Gospel and Country/Bluegrass. This fits in with our mandate "To preserve the history of country music and develop new talent." Our programs are geared towards developing talent of emerging artists in the country music genre. It is important that contestants fit the categories. In order to fairly assess the competition and move on to the North American Country Music Association competitions.
